COCAINE FIEND USES SHOT GUN

Oscar Robbins Badly Wounds Two Negroes

Ed Coltrane Shot in Leg and Member Had to Be Amputated—Both Will Recover—Robbins Claimed Negroes Robbed Him Friday Night—Robbins Safe in the Calaboose—Wanted to Shoot Eight Other Negroes.

Charged with cocaine and blind tiger liquor Oscar Robbins, a negro, ran amuck yesterday morning and with a shot gun wounded two other negroes, John Young and Ed Coltrane, and when caught was on the lookout for still another, Shelly Fruit.

Ed Coltrane was shot in the right leg and he wound was so serious that it was found by the physicians at St.
Leo's that it would have to be amputated, which was done. John Young escaped with only a very painful flesh wound.

Robbins had been drunk Friday night and playing a game of "skin" with the negroes. Young, Coltrane and Fruit, and claims that he won about $7 from them when they drew a knife and a pistol on him making him refund his winnings. He met Officer Isley early Saturday morning and told him that he had been treated wrong the night before and if he had had a gun he would have killed a negro. Robbins then went to Mr. D. Stadium and rented a shot gun for 25 cents, telling Mr. Stadium that he wanted to shoot some bull frogs.
He had a nickel left and purchased three shells for the gun and went in search of his intended victims. He found John Young at "Do Drop In," a notorious negro dive in South Greensboro, and shot him in the right thigh. Robbins said after he was captured that it was his intention to kill Young. Going on further into "Dingling," another tough negro settlement, he met Ed Coltrane who he fired upon, the shot taking effect in his right leg above the knee.

Officers were notified by phone message at 8:30 and several of the police were hurried to the scene of the shooting and the wounded were sent to St. Leo's for treatment. In the meantime Robbins had started back up town intending to go to a negro club room in East Greensboro to find Shelly Fruit and kill him. With the shot gun on his shoulder he came to the Greensboro Baggage & Transfer office where some negroes, who are employed there as drivers, were eating some watermelon. He joined the party, all of whom knew him, and told them about the shooting of Young and Coltrane. The negroes after hearing what a desperate man he was were very cautious to him and when he asked for some of the melon they insisted that he leave as much as he desired, one negro even offering to go to one of the hotels and borrow a knife for him. He had the negroes badly scared.

Going from the transfer office he went down the railroad track to the house of Sarah Turnage, in "Frogtown" where Chief Neely, Sergeant Pearce and Deputy Sheriff Weatherly found that he could be murderer on a bed in the next woman's house. He surrendered without any resistance, begging the officers not to shoot him, telling them that if they would only give him time to kill Shelly Fruit that they might then take him and hang him.

Robbins told Chief Neely after his arrest that he had intended to get ten negroes, but that he did not want to hurt a white man. He said after he rented the gun he only had a nickel left and could buy only three shells, two of which he used and one was in the gun which was setting in the corner of the room that he occupied when arrested. He said that he wanted to kill John Young and Shelly Fruit and that he wanted to cripple Ed Coltrane and seven other negroes. Robbins is now in jail charged with assault with a deadly weapon and with assault with intent to kill and his preliminary trial will be held in the morning in Municipal court.

Robbins, who is known by the nickname of "Greasy" is a well known negro about town and was formerly employed by the transfer company. He has been in trouble before with negroes but never bothers white people. He is one of the many negro cocaine fiends about town. The two victims of his gun are both worthless negro gamblers as is Shelly Fruit, the negro that escaped without injury.

The wounded negroes were reported to be getting along nicely last night and no fatal results are feared from the shooting.

ALLISON IN DEATH CELL

Placed There Safely Friday Afternoon by Sheriff Hunter—Second Attempt At Suicide.

With tears streaming from his eyes and his head on the shoulder of Deputy Sheriff W. H. Wright, who together with Sheriff T. F. Hunter, were carrying him to the place of execution, James B. Allison, the slayer of three men, promised that he would give the officers no more trouble until the time of his death in the electric chair on February 24. He said that he would spend the few short weeks that the law permits him to live in reparation of his many crimes and trying to prepare himself to die. The change came in the man Friday afternoon as he was being carried from Asheville to Raleigh, as was told in yesterday's Telegram, after the train had left the station at Durham and nearing Raleigh. Mr. Wright had been talking to the prisoner and trying to make him listen to reason and after Sheriff Fuller had left the two men together the three times a murderer broke down and cried, promising to reform. It was a noticeable fact though, that the prisoner expressed no sorrow for having committed the last murder.

Sheriff Fuller and Deputy Wright were in the city last night returning to Asheville from Raleigh and in talking of the prisoner Sheriff Fuller said that Allison was one of the most desperate men he had ever seen, that he was greatly relieved when he was turned over to the State warden.

After trying to kill himself with a pen knife in Asheville just before starting to the death chamber, Allison tried to throw himself from the window of the car while passing through the long tunnel this side of Black Mountain as he was brought through on train number 22, Friday. Only by being extremely watchful and keeping the condemned man held tightly in his seat was his plan of self destruction frustrated. After a talk with Mr. Wright in Salisbury the prisoner became quieter and seemed to undergo a change, the final break-down coming as the train nearly reached the place named by the law for his death. Sheriff Fuller, against whom the prisoner has a great dislike, the sheriff having prevented his suiciding in Asheville on last Thursday, was asked to leave the two men alone which he did and then Allison broke down and cried, telling Mr. Wright that he was sorry for the trouble he had caused the officers and that he intended to prepare himself for his death.

Allison has killed three men, but the death sentence is for his latest murder, that of Frank McGee, city patrol driver, of Asheville, whom he shot and then beat his head to a pulp with a sledge hammer a few weeks ago.

When put in the death cell yesterday he was very docile, eating heartily at both breakfast and dinner and his reformation seems to be genuine. Several people who know Allison and his record say they do not believe that his repentance is genuine, but a trick to put the keepers off their guard and give him another chance to try self-destruction.
Extra precautions will be taken to keep him from making good his boast that he will never die in the electric chair.
It may be a fight between a desperate man and the law and numbers of people throughout the state are watching the fight with interest.

LADIES, HAVE YOU PAID YOUR DUES TO THE WOMAN'S CLUB?

If You Haven't, This Is To Remind You That the Club Proposes To Be Business-Like.

Ladies who joined the Woman's Club last year and who have neglected to pay their dues are reminded that their names will be dropped from the list unless they are present at the meeting next Saturday morning prepared to settle in full. As the Woman's Club is a business organization it will introduce business methods in the management of its own affairs, and the first step in that direction is to carry no delinquents.
It is hoped that no names will be dropped, but that those who have overlooked this important duty will remember to be on hand Saturday, or, if unavoidably detained, to send amount due to the treasurer, Mrs. J. J. Stone.

If you buy a pair of shoes at Thacker & Brockmann's and don't like them when you get home, take the shoes back and they will exchange them for another pair or return your money, whichever you prefer.

JOINT CANVASS NOT DESIRABLE

And Republicans Will Not Enter One.

At Meeting Yesterday County Executive Committee and Candidates Decided They Could Win More Votes by Adopting Other Methods—Fix Headquarters and Elect Campaign Committee.

The Republican County Executive Committee, together with the Republican county candidates, met yesterday afternoon for the purpose of deciding whether or not they would accept the challenge of Democratic County Chairman Sherrill for a joint canvass during the coming campaign. The outcome was that they will refuse to participate in a joint canvass, the principal reason giving being that the Republicans can secure more votes by conducting their campaign singlehanded and by adopting such methods as they deem proper.

The committee appointed a campaign committee of Judge W. P. Bynum, W. P.
Ragan, G. P. Stone, B. C. Sharpe and W. J. Stafford to assist County Chairman Worth. Headquarters will be opened in the old Benbow building within the next few weeks.

So Guilford citizens are not to be accorded the privilege of hearing the issues of the coming campaign discussed by the candidates of both parties this fall. In the last campaign the Republicans declined to enter a joint canvass and they contend that they gained votes by pursuing this method. Some weeks ago Chairman Sherrill sent Chairman Worth a letter inviting him to arrange for a joint canvass. No reply came to this letter and about two weeks ago he sent a second letter. About ten days ago a reply to this was received, in which Mr. Worth stated that he would take the matter up with the candidates and they could do as they wished. As for himself he was opposed to the proposition. Yesterday's action was final and those who have hoped to hear the issues to be raised discussed from different viewpoints will be disappointed.

DELIGHTFUL OCCASION.

Misses Hattie Norman and Minnie Eldridge Entertain Number of Friends.

Last Friday evening, at the home of Miss Norman, 905 Douglas street, Misses Hattie Norman and Minnie Eldridge delightfully entertained thirty-five of their young friends. Misses Elsie Norman and Malissa Eldridge received at the front door and ushered the guests into the library. The color scheme was pink and green this being artistically carried out in the dining room where Miss Sallie Eldridge and Mr. Rob O'Bryan presided over the punch bowl. Chocolate and banana cream, cake and fruits were served. After supper the guests amused themselves by playing a game of "hearts," during which mints were served.

Just before the guests departed little Miss Helen King entered bearing a beautiful basket of carnations. Each guest chose a flower to which was attached an English walnut containing many beautiful scenes of Greensboro.
The out of town guests were Miss Thelma Eakes, of Johnson City, Tenn.; and Messrs. Robert O'Bryant, Arthur Stag, Mack Herndon and James Coe, all of Durham, and Mr. Philip Adams, of Cluster Springs, Va. At a late hour the guests departed having spent a delightful evening.

Mrs. Mary J. Cooper Dead.

Mrs. Mary J. Cooper, wife of Rev. N.
M. Cooper, died yesterday shortly after noon at her home, 1000 Laura avenue.
She was 54 years old and had been a sufferer from paralysis for some years.
The funeral will be held from the late residence this morning at 11 o'clock and the remains will be taken to Liberty on the afternoon train. The interment will be at the old home burying ground at Mt. Pleasant church.

Special Epworth League Service.

Western North Carolina Epworth League conference, wishes to meet all Epworth Leaguers and all young people of the city who are interested in this work in a union service at West Market eight o'clock. A full attendance is earnestly requested.

FINAL GAMES ON LOCAL DIAMOND

Champs at Home For Closing Series.

Play Charlotte Monday and Tuesday and Greenville Wednesday and Thursday—How The Clubs Stand—Proximity Wins From Groomtown—Other Games of Local Interest.

Wehrll pitched yesterday. That's the whole story. Anderson made 3 runs and of course the Champs did not make any, with the left handed wizard in the box with the horse shoes in his pocket. He allowed the Champs one single hit during the entire nine innings. The Champs have one consolation—they will probably never have to face him again.

The Champs get home today and will be at Cone Park Monday with the Hornets. The game will be called at 4:30 as usual and as it is the last series at home and last week of the Carolina Association it is expected that they will be greeted by a large attendance. Han-kie and Taxis will probably be the battery for Manager Cross, while Wallace and Beusse will be the chosen ones for the Champs.

Proximity 2; Groomtown 1.

In an exciting game and well played, despite the numbers of errors in the error column Proximity defeated Groomtown yesterday afternoon in the second game of a doubleheader at Cone Park by the score of 2 to 1.

Dick Hobbs was the twirler for Proximity and he only allowed the Groomtown boys six well scattered hits, their single runs coming in the ninth as the result of two errors. W. Short for Groom-town pitched a winning game but his teammates did not hit behind him and their baserunning was not what it should have been. They did not take advantage of the several errors that Proxi made and by which they could have easily tied the score.

Proxi is improving every game and will be able to give the Champs a good lively battle when they cross bats with them on Labor Day.

The story of the game is told in the box score.

North Greensboro, 5; White Oak, 3.

The first game of the double header was between the White Oak team and North Greensboro for the second place in the amateur championship of the city and North Greensboro captured the game by the score of 5 to 3. The two pitchers, Lindsay and Purgason, were the feature of the game and both played good ball. Garner, the White Oak catcher, also did some good work and his hitting was the feature of his team.

This is the eighteenth game for North Greensboro and they have only lost 2 games, 1 to Proximity and 1 to White Oak. They intend to get the deaf and dumb pitcher from the Durham city league here for next Saturday and will challenge Proxy again.

The game by innings:
North Greensboro 012 000 11—5 8 3 White Oak 200 010 000—3 5 5 Batteries: Purgason and Causey. Lin-say and C. Garner.

Cone Company 11; Tabernacle 6.

The Cornfield league closed their season yesterday and the pennant goes to that famous baseball impresario, Manager "Mugsy McGraw" McCormick, who when the season looked to be a dismal failure still had faith in his world beaters, and backed them to the bitter end.
Tabernacle was the victim yesterday afternoon and the benders of Goodman were too much for the country boys, while the Cone Company team was there with the willow, landing on the Coble twirlers and showing no mercy, three of the one family being used as the battery to stem the tide of the heavy slugging.
But to no avail, the McCormickites were trying to fatten their batting averages and piled up at least twenty hits, half of which were for extra bases.

This is the last game of the season for the Cone Company team, who, while they have not won any too many games and made no money out of the venture, have had a lot of fun. Manager McCormick has not as yet given out the names of his players that have been sold or drafted to higher leagues but will issue a statement soon.

The feature of yesterday's game was the slugging of the locals and the extraordinary good work of Goodman, the pitcher, who after the third inning held his opponents at his mercy.

Batteries: Cone Co. Goodman and Harrison; Tabernacle, Coble, Coble and Coble.

BUTLER-ADAMS COMPROMISE.

No Disposition of Damage Suit Made At Past Term of Court.

Despite the fact that it was generally expected that the damage cases of ex-Judge Spencer B. Adams vs. Marion Butler and the Caucasian, Butler's paper, which were compromised some weeks ago, would be brought before Judge Lyon, at the term of court just closed and formally stricken off the calendar such was not the case.

According to the custom the cases will have to be put on the calendar and when reached during court counsel for either the plaintiff or defendant will announce that the cases have been compromised and the court will order them stricken off the calendar. No costs have accumulated so far, each side paying in advance the costs incurred in filing the complaint and the answer. So there will be no court costs to pay.

It is understood that the cases will go on the calendar at the next term of civil court, which will convene on October 24. There is considerable interest in the cases as many are anxious to learn just what the terms of the compromise were. It is not believed, however, that the terms will ever be known.

There are some who believe that Butler could have used the compromise decidedly to his advantage in the chairmanship campaign had he desired. But it is thought that he saw he had the upper hand without that and is saving this matter for another purpose and when the proper time arrives will make the terms of the compromise serve as heavy artillery. He is known to be as bitter towards Judge Adams and the organization wing of the Republican party as ever and is believed to be only biding his time before he springs something new on the former leaders of his party.

HORRIBLE DEATH OF A. W. AUSTIN

Fell From Fast Train Yesterday Afternoon.

Head Was Cut In Two Pieces by Wheels of Passenger Train No. 36 Just Beyond Denim—Unfortunate Man Was Beating Ride on Train and Supposed To Have Fallen Between Cars—Remains Held For Instructions From People.

As train No. 36 passed Denim junction yesterday afternoon the flagman stationed on the rear end of the train was horrified to see the mangled body of a man lying on the track, his head severed between the mouth and the eyes.
He notified the conductor who stopped the train at Hendrix and wired back to headquarters that a man had been killed, after which the train sped onward.

Supt. Shelton on receipt of the message notified Sheriff Jones and that officer was soon on the scene. Coroner Wood was out of the city and Sheriff Jones decided that it was not necessary to hold an inquest unless the railway company desired to do so. In a pocket was a letter addressed to A. W. Austin, Greensboro, and signed by Mrs. A. W.
Austin, Columbus, Ga., also 90 cents in change. After viewing the body Sheriff Jones notified the railroad authorities that the body was on their property and the duty of caring for the remains of the unfortunate man devolved on the company. The body was carried to the undertaking parlors of Huntley-Stockton-Hill Co. and prepared for burial.

Austin's body was lying alongside the track, the upper portion of his head and his right arm, being between the rails.
It was evident that the wheels passed over his head and arm. The head was pointing north and the theory is that he struck the ground feet foremost and was hurled beneath the wheels. The fingers of his left hand were also hor-ribly mangled.

Austin for some time had been in the employ of the Union Cafe, just beyond the railroad. He was addicted to the use of ginger and had been told that he must leave the drug alone, but yesterday morning after he was relieved he tanked up and fearing a discharge notified the manager that he was not going to work any more. He was paid up, being due the sum of 90 cents, and giving a pack of cigarettes. This was about 12 o'clock.

Just as No. 36, which leaves here at 1:50 p. m., was pulling out of the station Policeman Foushee saw a man answering Austin's description climbing on top of the mail car. As the man gained the top he waved a farewell at the officer, but the train was then going at such speed that the officer could not have it stopped. It seems certain that the unfortunate man was trying to ride on the outside of the train as he had not spent any of his money. It is believed that after staying a few minutes on top of the car he attempted to get down and in some way fell, being hurled under the wheels. That he tried to catch is evident from the fact that his right arm was cut off at the shoulder and the left arm was also thrown forward.

The letter from Mrs. Austin showed that she was in Columbus, Ga., on Aug.
25, the date of the letter, but does not tell whether that city is her home or not. Austin had told parties here that his father lived in Lynchburg and a sister lived in Danville. The railroad authorities last night got in communication with Mr. W. E. Cook, of Lynchburg, a brother-in-law of the deceased. Mr.
Cook wired instructions to hold the remains until further notice or until he arrived to take charge. It is thought that he will arrive in the city this morning.

Another sister, Miss Mary E. Austin, lives in Wilson.

The deceased was apparently 25 or 30 years of age and those who knew him state that he was a hard working man and knew his business to perfection. He was of a quiet nature and his only fault seemed to be his fondness for ginger.

BETTER THAN SPANKING.

Spanking does not cure children of bed-wetting. There is a constitutional cause for this trouble. Mrs. M. Summers, Box W, Notre Dame, Ind., will send free to any mother her successful home treatment, with full instructions. Send no money, but write her today if your children trouble you in this way. Don't blame the child, the chances are it can't help it. This treatment also cures adults and aged people troubled with urine difficulties by day or night.

TO KILL THE DANDRUFF GERM.

Is the Only Possible Way of Having An Effective Cure.

If you see a woman or a man with luxuriant glossy hair, you may be sure that he has dandruff to amount to nothing. In nearly every case where women and men have thin brittle hair, they owe it to dandruff. There are hundreds of preparations that "claim" to cure dandruff, but not one but Newbro's Herpicide tells you that dandruff is the result of a germ growing into the scalp, and that permanent cure of dandruff and its consequences falling and baldness, can only be had by killing the germ; and there is no other preparation that will destroy that germ but Newbro's Herpicide. "Destroy the cause, and you remove the effect." Sold by leading druggists. Send 10c. in stamps for sample to The Herpicide Co., Detroit, Mich. See dollar bottles guaranteed. CALVIN H. WILEY

By E. B. I.

Calvin Henderson Wiley, son of David L. and Anne Woodburn Wiley, was born in Guilford county, North Carolina, Feb. 3, 1819, and died Jan. 11, 1887.

He received his early training at Caldwell Institute in Greensboro. He afterwards went to the University of North Carolina, from which he graduated in 1840 with highest honors.

It had been his parents' desire that he become a minister, but not feeling called to that profession, he chose law and in 1841 settled at Oxford.

Throughout his life he delighted in literary pursuits. From 1841 to 1843 he edited the Oxford Mercury. In 1847 he published his first novel, entitled, "Alamance" or "The Great and Final Experiment." Two years later he wrote a second novel, "Roanoke."

But the author had a more serious mission than the writing of romances. In 1850 he was elected a member of the General Assembly from Guilford county. During this session he introduced a bill providing for the appointment of a state superintendent of common schools. He failed to get his bill passed at this session but the bill was passed two years later. Wiley was elected superintendent in December, 1852, and entered upon the duties of his office Jan. 1, 1853.

It was Dr. Wiley who first conceived the idea of establishing a teachers' normal. He was also the author of three other educational schemes: The establishment of a Teachers' Library Association; the publication of the North Carolina School Journal, and the organization of the North Carolina Educational Association. He remained in office until the close of the civil war, when the office was abolished for a time by federal authorities.

He was licensed to preach in the Presbyterian church in 1855, and received the honorary degree, doctor of divinity, in 1881. He was married Feb. 25, 1862, to Miss Mittie Toole. His wife and five children still survive.

So closely connected with the educational interests of the state was Dr. Wiley that he deserves to be called the founder of the public school system of North Carolina.

At the beginning of the war, when it was proposed to use the educational funds for the purposes of war, it was Wiley who by his earnest appeals, saved the funds to the education of the children and demonstrated that education was a greater cause than political interests. Because of his devotion and self-sacrifice to the cause no man deserves to be more revered by the school children of the State and no teacher should let the opportunity pass to tell the children of the work of this great man.

If a man's character and ability are to be measured by the work he does in the world, the results of his work upon civilization must mark Calvin H. Wiley among the greatest statesmen which this state has ever produced and the lapse can only add lustre to his fame.

CLEANLY WOMAN.

Erroneously Thinks by Scouring Her Scalp That She Cures Dandruff.

Cleanly woman has an erroneous idea that by scouring the scalp, which removes the dandruff scale, she is curing the dandruff. She may wash her scalp every day, and yet have dandruff her life long, accompanied by falling hair, too. The only way in the world to cure dandruff is to kill the dandruff germ, and there is no hair preparation that will do that but Newbro's Herpicide. Herpicide by killing the dandruff germ, leaves the hair free to grow as healthy Nature intended. Destroy the cause you remove the effect. Kill the dandruff germ with Herpicide. The Best $3.50 Shoe in the World is Made in Lynchburg, Va.

THE South makes the best $3.50 shoe that money can buy or skilled labor put together. The South can well be proud of this fact, for it is a boast made good over generations of shoemakers in New England and all the other shoe sections combined.

$3.50 or $4.00 paid for a CRADDOCK SHOE will buy, for any Southern gentleman, more good leather, more style, more fit and better workmanship than any other shoe manufacturer can afford to offer at this price.

Why? Because climatic, living and labor conditions are more favorable than in New England. Because shoes can be shipped out of Lynchburg to any point in the South for less than from the West or New England. Because rents are less, Insurance is less, Taxes are less.

To sum it up in a few words—the makers of the CRADDOCK SHOE can give Southerners more value, detail for detail, point for point, more actual money value in leather, style, durability and comfort, at this price, than any other manufacturer in the world, because it actually costs less to do business. This saving is put into the wear and worth of the CRADDOCK SHOE.

To compete with these natural advantages and sell at the same price New England and Western makers scrimp and cut and shave the difference out of the shoes they send South.

In the hidden places they scalp a cent, a half cent, a fraction here and there. These make up the cost of competition—but what about the value of the shoe they offer?

The CRADDOCK SHOE—made by the most skilled, native, white labor—made from honest stock, sold at an honest price, will wear thirty days longer than any other shoe at the same price.

Two Prisoners

By ANNA WOODBRIDGE

Copyright, 1910, by American Press Association.

There is a factory in Russia, or, rather, in Siberia, where the government manufactures certain articles—it is not known what they are—by a secret process. The method of keeping this secret is to receive only workmen who must remain there all their lives. Once having entered the inclosure, around which is a wall so high that no one has ever escaped over it, the workman becomes a prisoner and bids farewell forever to the outside world.

"Paula," said a young Russian one day, "I am going to enter the factory."

"Oh, Peter!" gasped the girl to whom he spoke.

"Yes; we can never marry—we are too poor. There is suffering enough for us as peasants without bringing children into the world to suffer. I can get no work elsewhere, and I am starving. There time may obliterate you from my memory, and, though I shall be deprived of my liberty, I shall suffer less than to be free and a prey to a hapless love."

The girl begged him to take a different view of the matter. With streaming eyes she clung to him, beseeching him to wait in the hope that some good fortune would come to them. But he refused to be encouraged. Tearing himself away from her, he went to the factory, its gates closed upon him, and he knew that they would never open to him.

At the end of the first year of his imprisonment he found that he had not forgotten his sweetheart. Death alone enables us to sever such bonds. While there is life there is hope, and it is this hope that keeps warm the embers in the heart. Two, three years passed, and still he could not forget his Paula. Then he wept bitter tears at the decision he had made when he entered the factory. He had taken on a life-long imprisonment without having been cured of his passion.

One day he entered the office of the factory, and what was his surprise to see Paula sitting at a desk writing. He was about to rush toward her when she looked up. Their eyes met, and she cast hers again down upon her work. In a moment he understood. She had come for a purpose that would be defeated were their knowledge of each other betrayed.

When Peter left the office it was as a new man. His beloved had come to him and had come for him or she would not have come at all. True, they were now both prisoners for life. Had she not some plan in view for their mutual good she would not have given up her liberty. Then he was tortured with the fear that she, too, having been on the brink of starvation, had come there for a living and that possibly she might occasionally see him.

Months passed before these two found an opportunity to speak to each other without being noticed. An accident happened in the factory by which several workmen were pinioned under a heavy weight. The managers were all busy endeavoring to release those who had not been killed outright and whose cries for relief were pitiable. The office force rushed into the factory, and workmen and clerks mingled indiscriminately. Paula and Peter met and withdrew to a corner.

"My father," said Paula hurriedly, "became a soldier in the war with Japan. He saved the life of a general. The general took a diamond from his shirt front and gave it to his preserver. My father, who loves me better than all the world, gave it to me. I turned it into money, and it produced 20,000 rubles. We planned to use it to transport us to America, but I would not go without you. My father and I have dug a tunnel under the wall. The entrance is between the wall and a wooden outhouse, the house in the southeast angle. The opening is covered with lumber. We must plan an escape through it. You will hear from me."

She darted away, leaving Peter with a great joy, a great hope, swelling within him. After that whenever Paula found an opportunity to pass Peter she slipped a bit of paper into his hand on which was written an appointment. It usually read "Tonight at 12" or "Tomorrow night" or "Sunday night at 11." Five or six of these slips passed between them before they found a night when they could meet and two or three more before they met and could make the attempt. They did not dare escape separately, expecting that after the first escape a search would be made that would reveal the tunnel.

Finally they came together when the night was dark and stormy. The sentries were dazed to keep in their boxes, and there was no one loitering outside the building. Going behind the outhouse, Peter removed the lumber, Paula got down into the tunnel, and Peter got down after her, pulling the lumber back in its place.

They were obliged to crawl for some distance, but as they proceeded and the tunnel drew away from the proximity of the wall it had been dug larger. They passed through safely. Peter pushed aside some boards covered with earth, and they found themselves in the midst of low brush.

Paula knew very well which way to go. The winds blew, the rain fell upon them and soaked their clothing, but never had either experienced such happy exhilaration.

Three months later a family of Russian emigrants settled on their own farm in North Dakota.

Col. Roosevelt says he is against bossism, and all the while he is trying to control New York State.

Recent developments in the political situation indicate that one Mr. Sherman is as clearly a member of the class of undesirable as Aldrich, Cannon, Balinger & Co.

Retail milliners in session in Chicago from all parts of the country have worked out a fine plan for solving the problem of large hats in public halls. The plan is simply to sell Mylady two hats. There will be the big, fluffy picture hat as of yore, but underneath it will be a little turban, or something of the sort, that will not prevent people behind the wearer from seeing in front of them. But it will be observed that, while solving the problem of vision, this plan makes just twice as perplexing as formerly the problem of coin.

Not to be outdone by his counterpart on this side of the Atlantic Ocean, Emperor William, of Germany, has had the hardihood to reaffirm his belief in the divine right of kings. It's a toss up as to whether William the Second or Theodore the First is the more self-centered. But there is the difference, William is not altogether without rhyme or reason in his egotism for he undoubtedly is a man of great temporal power, while Theodore is a mere declaimer and absolutely without power to guarantee the doing of the things he grows red in the face swearing shall be done.

The London students of the political situation in the United States are said to be greatly puzzled over President Taft's recent announcement in favor of further revision of the tariff. "If," they ask, "your recent tariff revision was a satisfactory one, why reopen such a source of depressing uncertainty to your manufacturers and merchants?" We don't see what answer Mr. Taft can give unless it is that he was not in earnest in his original statement to the effect that the tariff as revised by Aldrich and Payne was satisfactory.

Cannon Democrats, meaning those Representatives who deserted the Democratic caucus and helped hold up the hands of Speaker Cannon last Spring in the famous rules contest, were elected to stay at home so far as Georgia is concerned, this being one of the conspicuous results of the recent Democratic primaries in the Empire State of the South. The Democrats of those Georgia districts, two in number, are to be congratulated on their ability to see the rotten streak in their representatives.

Nathan Straus, the millionaire philanthropist of New York, has announced that next year he will abandon his distribution of pasteurized milk. He has maintained seventeen stations in New York, selling pasteurized milk by the glass at 1 cent, besides giving free bottled milk for needy babies. The reason for the decision of Mr. Straus to discontinue the charity is the fact that scientists are divided on the value of the pasteurized product. Since it is uncertain as to whether pasteurized milk is beneficial, how would it do for Mr. Straus to distribute the milk in its natural state? There is no doubt about its being nutritious in that form.

Rubber boots made in this country by the United States Rubber Company (the trust), and for which the American consumer pays an average price of $4 a pair, are sold by that corporation in the English wholesale markets at an average price of 46 cents a pair.—New York World.

Such an outrageous discrimination against the United States buyer seems almost unbelievable. But the World is a reputable newspaper. It would not, of course, print such a statement unless it were sure of its ground. Some people think that the expression so often heard nowadays, "tariff robbery," is an exaggeration of political partisanship, but facts such as that cited by the World show that the term is employed advisedly and is not one bit too strong.

The quarrel between the Republican bosses and would-be bosses in New York State is bringing out some information not heretofore available or certainly not heretofore circulated. For one thing, William Barnes, Jr., boss of Albany county, says that it cost over eight hundred thousand dollars to elect Hughes Governor of New York. Barnes also says that Hughes could not have been elected for a smaller amount. Revelations such as these give an idea of the sort of job it is to elect a Democrat Governor of New York. The money is largely in the opposing political camp and it is money that swings the election. Let the Republicans of New York State keep up their dissensions. Some more startling facts are sure to come out.

Says the Asheville Citizen in discussing the local option plank of the Republican platform:

These are days when voters demand plain and unequivocal statements from political parties.

And the Citizen also says that the plank is going to prove a boomerang. Since one ordinarily hears the words "local self-government" used only in connection with the sale of liquor we at first supposed that the local self-government plank of the Republican platform was a bona fide wet plank. But the Republicans themselves are not agreed on what it means and naturally the outsiders are in the dark and are forced to conclude that the adoption of such a plank was a deliberate effort to deceive. That being so, it should certainly have the effect of materially injuring the prospects of the Republican party in this State.

PARK SEASON ENDS.

Last Performance of the Summer Given Last Night.

Manager E. G. Gidley, of Lindley Park, wound up his engagement as manager of the park last night. At the close of the vaudeville performance he expressed his satisfaction at the manner with which he had been treated by the Public Service Company, the press and the public.

By persistent use of all legitimate advertising methods and by giving good entertainment Mr. Gidley was enabled to get many visitors out to the park this summer.

He goes from here to Burlington to put on a prize baby contest similar to the one held here week before last. He will put on the same contest at Durham and Winston-Salem before returning to his home in Boston.

Tourists Sail For Home.

A party of Greensboro people chaperoned by Mrs. Lucy Robertson and including Misses Sadie Royster, Mary Moore, Elizabeth Porter, Blanche Gunn, Cordye Olive and Ruth Hughes, who have been touring Europe for the last three months, sailed from Harve, France, on the twentieth and will reach the New York port on the thirtieth. They will spend several days in New York in sightseeing and reach Greensboro about the sixth. Miss Fannie Strauss, who has been with the party, will spend another year abroad, visiting relatives in Berlin, Paris, and in South Africa.

A WITTY PASHA.

He Told the Missionary a Story to Fit the Occasion.

Official bribery is common in the east, and it is a tender subject there, as a humorous story told by the late Rev. H. H. Jessup, D. D., in his book, "Fifty-three Years in Syria," bears witness.

One day in 1873 Dr. Van Dyck, manager of the press in connection with the work of propaganda of the Syrian Protestant college at Beirut, was sent for by Kamil Pasha, the governor, to come to the serai, as he was about to shut up the press for a violation of the press laws. Dr. Van Dyck proceeded to the serai and asked the pasha what he meant.

The pasha, holding up a little tract, said, "Was this printed at your press?"

"Yes."

"Then it must be confiscated, as it contains an attack on the Turkish government."

"Wherein," asked Dr. Van Dyck, "does it attack the government?"

The pasha pointed out several passages which criticized the bribery and corruption everywhere prevalent, perjury and lying among witnesses and public officials and the fact that "truth had fallen in the streets and equity could not enter."

"Are not these statements true?" said Dr. Van Dyck. "Your excellency ought to put a copy into the hands of every government official in your pashalic. Is it not so?"

"Have you never heard the story of the Cadi el Ah War?" asked the pasha. "And what is that?" queried the doctor.

"Well," began the pasha, "once there was a famous one eyed cadi (Judge). One day a man came to court and addressed him as follows:

"Good morning. O one eyed cadi! May your day be blessed. O one eyed cadi! I have heard of the noble character and justice of the one eyed cadi, and I would ask the distinguished and revered one eyed cadi to do me justice, and—"

"Stop!" interrupted the cadi. "Supposing I am one eyed, do I want to be everlastingly reminded of it? Get out of my sight!"

"And so," concluded the pasha, "we know that these reflections on our country and our courts are true, but we don't want to be publicly reminded of it!"

WILL RUN INDEPENDENTS.

Wake Republicans Will Not Put Out Full Fledged Ticket.

Raleigh, Aug. 27.—Wake county Republican leaders held a conference here this afternoon and announced that they propose to allot to some good independent Democrats that may conclude to run, two of the four principal court house offices—sheriff, clerk of the court, register of deeds and treasurer. Also to get independents for one place on the board of county commissioners and one of the seats in the house of representatives. The other offices will have Republican candidates named for them at the convention to be held next Saturday. The leaders insist that they have excellent independent material for the offices allotted to such candidates.

Governor Kitchen pardons Adrian Walker, serving seventeen years from Forsyth county for murder in that he killed a man with whom he had gambled and drank all night, the murderer being the heavy loser in the gaming. The reason for the pardon is a collapse of his health through tuberculosis, in that it is not thought that he could long survive if held as a prisoner. He has served five years.

After being in jail for the past two months and longer Thomas B. Johns has been able to find a bondsman, or rather bondswoman to stand for his appearance at the next Federal court here to be tried for using the mails to blackmail an aunt and force her to pay him $250 through fear of being prosecuted for opening a letter to him. Johns has an interest in the Eccles estate at Charlotte and the letter that was opened was from the executor of this estate. The aunt's name and his were very similar. The name of the kinswoman who gave the bond is not made public.

Postmaster Willis G. Briggs of the Raleigh postoffice announces that the fiscal year ending June 30 the postal receipt of that office were $107,006, a gain of 147 per cent over the previous year. The total receipts for the year, all purposes and sources was $1,147,923. The payment of the salaries of 1,282 rural carriers and substitutes amounted to $1,110,936, this being an increase of $35,501 over the previous year. The money order cash handled for the year was $1,359,805, this being an increase of $324,505 over the previous year.

SPECIAL MEETING OF THE FARMERS

Will Be Held At State Normal College Next Saturday—Address by Dr. Alexander—Effort to Be Made to Have Agriculture Taught in Schools in County.

The Guilford County Branch of the State Farmers' Union met in called session yesterday morning in Neese's hall. A number of matters of routine nature were discussed, the principal business being the decision to appoint a special educational committee looking to the final establishment of a County Agricultural School. President C. T. Weatherly will announce this committee shortly.

The idea is to appoint the committee and it will formulate plans looking to the securing of an agricultural instructor to visit the larger schools in the county and give the boys special instruction along agricultural lines. A lady instructor will also visit the schools and teach domestic science. It is hoped in this way to build a nucleus for a permanent agricultural school in the county similar to the state institution, except on a smaller scale. It is believed that if two instructors can be secured to visit the larger schools, spending several days at each school, that the young people will learn many things that will be of great value to them in their farm life.

A special meeting of the union will be held next Saturday at the State Normal and Industrial College. At 10:30 a. m. Dr. H. Q. Alexander, of Charlotte, president of the State Union, will deliver an address. At noon the farmers will have a basket dinner in Peabody Park. The afternoon will be spent in going over the college farm and inspecting the several buildings at the college. This will be the first opportunity afforded the farmers of the county to go over the buildings at the institution and what they see will no doubt be a revelation to many. President Foust, assisted by members of the college faculty, will show the farmers over the buildings and give any information desired.

JOIN IN TIME.

Ladies Intending To Become Members of the Woman's Club Are Urged Not To Delay.

Ladies who have not heretofore been members of the Greensboro Woman's Club but who desire to join, are urged to send their names before next Saturday to Mrs. G. W. Whitsett. New members will be voted on at the first regular meeting of the general club to be held at 10:30 o'clock next Saturday morning, September 13, at the Carnegie library, and unless received on or before that date, they go over until the next meeting—first Saturday in October. This means that an entire month's work is lost—two important lessons in the Household Economics department, two in the art and one in each of the other departments. Send in your names at once and begin right.

The Destroyer.

The Colonel during his sojourn in the White House succeeded in splitting wide open the Republican party in the nation, and he would now apparently like to knock the party in this State into smithereens. President Taft, with his high character joined to judicial temperament and infinite tact, will probably succeed in closing up the ranks in the party in other States. What will happen in New York if the doughty Colonel carries out his threat of flourishing his shillalah in the State Convention remains to be seen.

Destitute Circumstances.

Sallie Wilson with a two year old baby came to Greensboro yesterday to secure work in one of the cotton mills in the city, but was taken sick with chills and could not work. She had no money and asked admission at one of the charitable institutions for a place to sleep and eat but was refused so she came to the depot where Officer Jeffreys saw her and took up a collection, getting enough money to get lodging, supper and breakfast for the woman and her baby.

Goes To Wilmington.

Dr. John Thames, who has been practicing medicine in Greensboro for the past 10 years, will move his family to Wilmington on September 1, where he will reside in the future. Dr. Thames, who is a successful physician, will be connected with a sanitarium there and will specialize diseases of women and children. Dr. Thames and family have many friends in Greensboro who regret their decision to leave.

A Correction.

The Telegram stated yesterday morning that Mr. S. T. Swicegood died Friday night at Telfair Sanitarium. This was incorrect. Mr. Swicegood died at a private cottage at Piedmont Heights. The Telfair Sanitarium does not take tuberculosis patients.

Mrs. Gnagge—"Before we were married you were half crazy about me." Mr. Gnagge—"Only half."

SERGEANT JONES FALLS; SUSTAINS UGLY FACE WOUNDS

In An Attempt to Catch Fleeing Negro Woman Last Night.

Police Sergeant Jones last night while chasing a negro woman had the misfortune to fall on the street and sustained two ugly face wounds. One wound was below the left eye and the other was just above the eye. There were a number of scratches and bruises all over the arms and legs. The sergeant had arrested a negro woman, Mattie King, wanted for an assault on another negro, and was carrying her to the lockup. She went along willingly enough until East Market street was reached when she suddenly turned and ran down the street.

The officer gave chase and soon was close enough to grasp her skirt. This was rotten and tore loose, the cloth wrapping around the officer's legs and hurling him to the ground. The street force is improving the street and at this point it was in an unfinished condition. It was the fall on the rocks in the streets that caused the wounds. Dr. Jarboe treated the wounds, four stitches being required for one wound. While they are not serious the wounds are ugly ones and will likely leave scars for some time. The woman got away, the officer being partially stunned by the fall.

Charged With Overspeeding.

A warrant was served last night on June Reitzel, a chauffeur, charging him with overspeeding. He went down South Elm street at a forty-mile-an-hour clip, to say the least, and as a large number of people were passing along and crossing the thoroughfare at the time it is a wonder that no one was run over. The chauffeur claimed that he had been sent after a nurse for a sick person and was told to hurry, regardless of the speed limit. However, the police state that he should have taken a street less public, which could have been done without increasing the distance.

Entertained Sunday School Class.

Mrs. W. J. Hendrix entertained her class of boys of the Buffalo Presbyterian church Sunday school at her home on Chestnut street yesterday afternoon. Numerous games were played, followed by a watermelon feast. Before the affair, which was a most enjoyable one, came to an end the members of the class were ushered into the dining room where cream, cake and fruits were served.

Corinthian Masons.

There will be a special communication of Corinthian Lodge No. 542, Monday evening, Aug. 29, at 8 o'clock, for work in the third degree. Every member is earnestly requested to attend and bring a brother Mason with him. Byron H. Taylor, Secretary.

Mrs. N. C. Weatherly Will Do a Strictly Cash Business.

After September 15, Mrs. Weatherly will discontinue the credit business and sell strictly for cash on delivery. This step will be of mutual benefit, for it is evident, that if no money is put out for stationery, postage, collectors per cent and no lost accounts, she can sell goods much less than any house running on the credit system. Her goods will be marked for cash and sold for cash only. Mrs. Weatherly wishes to take the opportunity to thank the ladies for their liberal patronage and solicit a continuance of the same under the new cash system.

THE SCOLD'S BRIDLE.

Brutal Punishment to Which Women Were Once Subjected.

The brank, or scold's bridle, or go-devil's bridle, was neither more nor less than a muzzle. It was in general use in Great Britain from the sixteenth to the eighteenth century, and in Scotland as well as women were muzzled for certain offenses, some at least of them were imaginary, even a dog's leather muzzle, is uncomfortable. How much more the scold's muzzle! It consisted, according to a high authority, Mr. W. Lewitt, of a kind of crown or framework of iron, which was locked upon the head, and it was armed in front with a gag, a plate or a sharp cutting knife or point, which was placed in the poor woman's mouth so as to prevent her moving her tongue, or it was so placed that if she did move it or attempt to speak it was cut in a most frightful manner. With this cage upon her head and with the gag firmly pressed and locked against her tongue the miserable creature, whose sole offense perhaps was that she raised her voice in defense of her social rights against a brutal and besotted husband or had spoken honest truth of some one high in office in her town, was paraded through the streets, led by a chain by the hand of a bellman, the beadle or the constable or chained to the pillory, the whipping post or market cross, to be subjected to every conceivable insult and degradation, without even the power left her of asking for mercy or of promising amendment for the future, and when the punishment was over she was turned out from the town hall or the place where the brutal punishment had been inflicted, maimed, disgraced, seething, faint and degraded, to be the object of comment and jeering among her neighbors.—London Family Herald.

CLEVELAND MEMORIAL TO BE A LOFTY TOWER.

Plans Completed For Erection at Princeton—$75,000 Already Raised.

Announcement was made yesterday of the completion of plans for a national memorial to Grover Cleveland at Princeton. It will take the form of a tower one hundred and fifty feet high and forty feet square at the base, which will be erected upon the tract known as the old golf links. On that site it will be distinctly visible from the public highways and the railway. The material will be silver gray stone.

Selection of a site awaited decision in regard to a group of buildings for the Graduate School of Princeton University with which Mr. Cleveland was closely identified in the last years of his life and for which bequests aggregating several million dollars have recently been made. The perfected design is to cluster these buildings around the tower, making a fine architectural mass.

The tower will be a plain, dignified shaft without external ornament of any kind. A statue of Mr. Cleveland will probably be placed in one of the rooms in the large base, where also there will be other accommodation for memorial purposes, including personal and national relics associated with Mr. Cleveland's life work.

This memorial has been undertaken by friends of Mr. Cleveland, who formed an association to raise funds and arrange other details. The cost of the tower will be $100,000, of which $75,000 has already been pledged. Subscriptions have ranged from $1 to $5,000 and have come from all parts of the country.

Appeal is made for the remaining $25,000. The officers of the association are Senator John F. Dryden of Newark, president; President Woodrow Wilson of Princeton University, vice-president; Daniel S. Voorhees of Morristown, treasurer, and Henry D. Winton of Hackensack, secretary.

Acute or Chronic—Which?

No matter if your kidney trouble is acute or chronic Foley's Remedy will reach your case. Mr. Claude Brown, Reynoldsville, Ill., writes us that he suffered many months with kidney complaint which baffled all treatment. At last he tried Foley's Kidney Remedy and a few large bottles effected a complete cure. He says: "It has been of inestimable value to me." Holton Drug Co.

SO MRS GRUNDY MIGHT KNOW.

Young Woman in Reno Forced to Advertise Her Single State.

If you are a woman of youth and beauty and want to live a quiet, peaceful life in the champion divorce city of the country, it may be necessary to advertise the fact that you are unmarried in order to settle all doubts as to your real reasons for residing in said city.

At least this is the experience of Miss Leslie Curtis, author and playwright. She arrived in Reno not long ago for a short stay. The divorce lawyer specialists smacked their lips and prepared to take action. The back-yard fence gossip had it that Miss Curtis was there to get a divorce. Gossip spread to New York, and Miss Curtis tried by letter to convince her friends there was nothing to the report. She wrote and wrote, but the letters became more numerous each day. Finally she gave up in despair and had the following advertisement published in one of the local papers in a very prominent space:

"Miss Leslie Curtis announces to Mrs. Grundy and her son, Dow Ting Thomas, that she has never committed matrimony and has no evil designs on the happiness of the opposite sex. All surmise, suspicion, discussion and bets can be settled without delay. It requires greater courage to be a spinster in Nevada than a collector of surnames."

This announcement caused consternation among the society of Reno. It was astonished, and the divorce specialists of legal fame were exceeding wrath.

"I had to do it in self-defense," laughingly explained Miss Curtis, "because, you see, I have never married. But even a person who has never committed matrimony has a hard time making folk in Reno believe that she is not in town to acquire a six-months legal residence and a divorce at the same time."

YOU might as well have your jewelry repaired properly when the cost is no greater.

A good many think that a simple job like putting a new pin in a brooch can only be done one way, and that it makes no difference where the work is done.

Next time you have some jewelry to repair, bring it here and you will see the difference. We take just as much pains with a ten-cent job as we would with one costing as many dollars.

Every article of jewelry left here to repair is polished and refinished like new, and you will be surprised at the transformation of some of the old pieces of jewelry that you are about ready to throw away.
